

CCEN Seminar: Voluntary Sector
Engagement in Children &
Young People's Services
Tuesday 16 February 2010
12.00 – 14.00 (lunch provided)
VAC 293 – 299 Kentish Town Road NW5 2TJ

Following on from our seminar on the Local Strategic Partnership and how it links in with the other strategic partnerships in the borough the CCEN is holding a seminar to look at how groups working with children, young people and families can engage with the statutory sector. We will also look at the new Children's Trust Board (successor to the Children & Young People's Partnership) and how that fits in.

We will be focusing more on:

- The Children & Families Network and how it works in partnership with the statutory sector in delivering the Children & Young People's Plan
- Voluntary Sector involvement in delivering the outcomes for 'Every Child Matters'

There will also be an opportunity to discuss how the recession is affecting the ability of voluntary and community groups to carry out their work around children and young people's services.
